Chinese teas for independent trade

10 January 2011 By admin Leave a Comment

Lu Lin, whose name means 'green forest' in Chinese, emphasising its healthy and natural properties, contains two ranges – 'Daily Cup', which contains four 250 gram tins of economically priced everyday tea, one from each of the main groups – Green, Black, Oolong and Pu Erh. Recommended retail prices (RRP) start at £11.95 per 250g.

The second is a medium priced ‘Single Estate’ range incorporating 40 teas, with prices starting at an RRP of £5.95 per 50 grams. There are plans to add a third range at a later date.

All are sourced from a carefully selected group of small and medium-sized farmers.

In addition, Lu Lin products include gift sets – from starter boxes containing a variety of different teas, to accessories such as teapots, hot water jugs and infuser mugs.
